

Contact Information

Barbara G. Feinberg LISW-S, IMFT
 2499 Fairmount Blvd.
 Cleveland Heights OH 44106
 216.390.6832
 barbfein@sbcglobal.net
 www.futurescoach.net

Professional Services	Life coach, marriage and family therapist., financial therapist, marriage and family therapist, social worker,
Practice Approach	A seamless integration of strength-based coaching and therapy techniques
Client Focus	High Net Worth individuals, couples, families
Typical Client Profile	Age: Adults, young adults, teens, tweens Gender: Males and females  My clients typically want to be in, are in transition and/or want to communicate their plans to their heirs.
Licenses/Certifications/Designations	Licenses Independent Social Worker – Supervisor (LISW-S), Independent Marriage and Family Therapist (IMFT), Clinical Member AAMFT
Education	Boston University – BA Political Science Yeshiva University – MS Special Education Case Western Reserve University - MSSA – Social Work with concentration in couple and family systems
Fee Structure	Per session
Years in Practice	15
Professional Association Affiliations	Financial Therapy Association American Association of Marriage and Family Therapist (AAMFT) Jewish Federation of Cleveland
Research Interests	The emotional aspects of wealth; family business interpersonal dynamics

Personal Statement

Barbara Feinberg is a family wealth therapist specializing in intergenerational communication and the role of money in relationships. She is a life coach and psychotherapist, independently licensed in social work and marriage and family therapy. Barb has the extensive training and supervised hours in couples and family therapy required for her clinical membership in the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), She is a 21/64 certified trainer and consultant. 21/64 specializes in multigenerational philanthropy.

As a member of the Financial Therapy Association, she believes in the association’s mission to enhance “the integration of cognitive, emotional, behavioral, relational and economic issues that promote family health.”

Her clients' issues have included:

- Financial conflict in families
- Sudden wealth
- Parenting adult children
- Couples and family (mis)communication
- Family business relationships
- Preparing grandchildren for inherited wealth
- Life transitions (e.g., divorce, widowhood, retirement)
- Addiction and family dynamics